Family of artists to hold exhibit

THE Ayala family, headed by Tita A. Ayala (Tala), will hold a painting exhibit at Gallery J of SM City Davao on June 9. The show, rigged up in commemoration of the centennial of the feminist movement in the Philippines, will showcase works of five female artists from the Ayala clan with ages ranging from six to 70.

The show, dubbed 3 Generations of Artists-A Painting Exhibit, will feature artists Tala; Tita's daughter, Cynthia Alexander; Tita's granddaughters, Isabel and Cristina Elizaga and Tala Alexander. The works include portraits, landscapes, still life and miniatures in modern expressionist and impressionist styles.

The Ayala family is well known for their artistic talents. Tala is a multi-awarded poet and fictionist while Cynthia Alexander has made a name for herself as a singer-performer.

The upcoming exhibit reveals another facet of their artistic gift; this time in visual arts.

The exhibit 3 Generations of Artists formally opens on Thursday at 6 p.m. and will run until July 8. Gallery J is at the Level 2 hallway of SM City (near Ace Hardware). For more info on the exhibit, please call 299-3041 or 297-2226.
